Greetings,

Mary Mahoney Professional Nurses Organization (MMPNO) is hosting their Annual Reception for African heritage students currently enrolled in professional nursing programs in the Puget Sound area. We are inviting students enrolled at your school to attend this reception.

Date: October 18, 2013

Time: 6:30 – 8:00 PM

Place: Skyline at First Hill (directions included)

725 9th Avenue, Seattle, WA 98104

The purpose of this informal gathering is to introduce students in the area to one another and to the MMPNO members. We ask that you share this information with the African heritage nursing students in your program. Please inform the students to RSVP no later than October 14, 2013. Contact Shirley Gilford via e-mail: the gilfordgroup@msn.com or phone 425-746-6046. Information regarding this event can also be found on our website, www.marymahoney.org.

We look forward to meeting and working with you and your students during the coming year. We want to provide as much support and assistance to these students in their pursuit of academic excellence. Please contact us for any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Antwinett O. Lee, MSN, RN
President
